NEW STAGE ROUTE.—We accepted an invitation a few days since from the proprietors of the new stage line established between Woodland and Colusa, to take a trip over their route. One of the Company's best coaches and finest teams were pressed into service for the occasion, and in company with a number of agreeable traveling companions, we enjoyed a most pleasant ride. The road, passing over one of the richest agricultural tracts in the country, is nearly level the entire distance—about fifty miles—and presents many features calculated to insure success to the enterprise. Throughout the line, in Yolo and Colusa counties, serious inconvenience has for a long time been experienced by reason of the absence of mail and express facilities or passenger conveyances, connecting with lines of either of the two counties. The establishment of this line of stages by a responsible and accommodating company will supply the want and prove a great benefit to many citizens of both counties through which it passes and the traveling public will find it a means of cheap, safe and speedy communication with the principal cities and business centers on the coast. Along the route at intervals of about fifteen miles, relays of good horses are stationed in order that no delay will be occasioned. Trips will be made daily, the stages connecting with the cars at Davisville and enabling passengers from Sacramento and San Francisco to go through to Colusa by daylight and in a few hours. Fucker, Buckley & Co., are the proprietors, and their long experience in the business and well known energy is a sufficient guarantee for the success of the undertaking. Nothing is better calculated to develop the resources of Yolo and Colusa than well regulated lines of travel and communication, and we hope to see this project, as well as all similar ones, encouraged and well patronized.

RACES AT KNIGHT'S LANDING.—N. P. Carpenter, proprietor of the Knight's Landing Race Course, offers a purse of $50 for a half mile race, free for all horses in Yolo county, with an inside purse of $50 entrance fee added. We learn there are three or four parties anxious to contest in this race, and the opportunity thus offered will enable them to prove the speed of their animals at small cost, with a chance of making expenses, and at the same time helping to demonstrate the superiority of Yolo county stock. We congratulate the citizens of our neighboring town on the acquisition of so good a race course, as we believe nothing helps to improve the stock of horses so much as a course on which they have a chance to display their muscular powers. We hope the citizens of Woodland will take the hint and do likewise.

BENEFIT BALL.—The ball to be given at Temple Hall on Friday evening, April 30th, will no doubt be a grand affair. The committee of arrangements have already commenced the necessary preparation to secure the comfort and pleasure of those who are expected to attend. Good music has been engaged and "mine host" of the Planter's House has promised to prepare an excellent supper for the occasion. The proceeds of the ball, as before stated, will be applied to the noble project of building an Orphan's Home, a work already begun by the Good Templars throughout the State.

FINN WORK.—J. D. Stephens, President of the Woodland Bank, has had workmen employed for some time in finishing the building. The finish has been executed with excellent taste and the different departments of the Bank present a very neat appearance. The graining and fancy painting, especially worthy of mention and reflect credit on the artists, Martin Peterson & Bro. The office of C. S. Frost, Real Estate Agent, in the same building, is also attractive in its appearance, and seems to be thronged with buyers and sellers.

PAINTERLY ACCIDENT.—A man named Ramsey, residing near Buckeye, met with a serious accident on Wednesday night, April 7th. He, in company with another man, started to Berres Valley and while traveling in the night over the mountains, missed his way and fell over a precipice thirty feet high. One arm was badly broken and his hip dislocated. He was found in a helpless condition next morning, suffering intense pain from his injuries. The wounded man was attended by Drs. Strong and Fowler and is now doing well.

IMPROVEMENTS AT KNIGHT'S LANDING.—The business men of Knight's Landing are active in making improvements necessary for the Spring trade which is opening upon them with good prospects. A splendid wharf, two hundred and fifty feet long and fifty feet wide, is being constructed on the river front under the supervision of C. F. Reed, to be finished according to contract within three weeks. The wharf will be well covered and conveniently arranged for the accommodation of farmers.

A SUCCESS.—The ball at Cottonwood, given for the benefit of the District School at that place, last week, was a grand success. About seventy-five couples were present and the night was made merry by music and dancing. A liberal sum was realized which will be appropriated toward the completion of the school building. The people of Cottonwood are taking a lively interest in school matters.

COUNTY COURT.—People vs. Buford—burglary—Trial set for Monday, 12th inst. People vs. —Lamb—grand larceny—Trial set for Wednesday next. Casey vs. Peterson—Set for trial April 10th. People vs. Choyinski—assault to murder—Defendant pleads "not guilty"—trial set for Monday next. Grand Jury presented indictments in the following cases: People vs. Dennis Buckley—murder; People vs. M. Choyinski—assault to murder. The following is the report of the Grand Jury: "To the Honorable County Court of Yolo county—The Grand Jury convened at the April term of Court, beg leave to report that we have found three true bills of indictment, and ignored three charges. We have visited and examined the County Jail and Hospital; we find the Jail safe and well-kept, and the care and condition of the Hospital reasonably good, and the medical treatment by the attending physician satisfactory; but recommend a change in the food, as that served by the nurses seems to be unsuitable for sick persons. We recommend that the Hospital buildings be improved by a porch on the front and south side. We beg leave further to report that during our sitting we have had under consideration a matter of malfeasance charged in a public journal of the county, in relation to the examination of Chisholm for insanity, and find that the action of the Board of Supervisors therein was a matter of economy to the county. A. W. Morris, Foreman."

SHRUBS AND FLOWERS.—A choice selection of shrubs and flowering plants will be offered for sale, at auction, on Main street, opposite the Planter's House, on Tuesday next, at 10 o'clock A. M. The sale will be conducted by Sheriff Minis, and all desirous of securing a fine variety of plants have an excellent opportunity of so doing.

I. O. O. F. REPRESENTATIVES.—Past Grand C. S. Frost, G. J. Overhiser and N. Wyckoff will represent Woodland Lodge No. 111, at the Grand Lodge which meets on the 5th of next month at San Francisco.

GIVES 'EM FITS.—Call in at Fleishman & Kaufman's store and buy one of those superb $25 business suits. Their Spring stock of dry goods and clothing is large and superior to any elsewhere offered in this market.

STRAWBERRIES.—The first strawberries that have appeared here this season were cultivated by F. Holtzman. He has a supply of large, ripe and luscious berries, raised in his garden without the aid of glass houses or hot beds.

WEATHER.—The weather has been delightful during the week, very favorable to the growth of vegetation. The roads are also in good order, with few exceptions.

MARRIED.—In San Francisco, April 5th, Geo. C. St. Louis to Miss Kate Hanson, of San Francisco. In Woodland, April 5th, by Rev. W. Carr, BREXMAN W. L. and LENA WARE, both of Sacramento City.

DIED.—At Liberty, San Joaquin county, April 1st, R. F. Baker, of Carroll county, Miss.

SPECIAL NOTICES.

THE PORT LONGFELLOW'S MISTAKE.—The author of Evangeline relates in elegant manner that on a certain evening an enterprising youth was observed climbing a mountain (probably one of the Sierra Nevada range), bearing in his hand something which had the appearance of a banner, inscribed with the word "Excelsior." As "the shades of night were falling fast," and the weather was somewhat misty, it was of course, easy enough for the spectator to be mistaken as to the character of the article borne by the traveler, and the nature of the inscription. There is now sufficient reason to believe that this was the case; for at the time this individual was seen, a corps of active young fellows, numbering in all some two hundred, were engaged in planting in the most elevated and conspicuous positions all over the country, signs or tablets bearing on their face the letters and figures "S. T. 1890—X," the mysterious equivalent of "Plantation Bitters."
